2 Deepening Our Understanding

- Check this video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vDuA9OPyp6I>) from Canadian company President's Choice.
 - How is this like a Eucharistic meal? [p 239]
 - What's aspect of a sacrificial meal is missing [p. 240]
- One of the characteristics of Anglican Eucharistic prayers is self-oblation. What does that mean, and where do we find examples of this in the BCP [p. 240]
- "If you only memorize one collect in your life, this would be the one to pick." [p. 254]
- Six areas of concern that must be addresses in the Prayers of the People [p.263]
 - ...and the dangers of the prayers becoming a speech to the gathered community rather than the gathered community's speech to God [p. 264]
- Discuss the differences between the levels of certainty of forgiveness of sins in the absolutions in Rite 1 and Rite 2. [p. 266]
 - ...and the reminder that reconciliation is not personal, but social [p.267]
- What are the three options for determining when the elements—the bread and wine—really become the body and blood of Jesus? What is a classic Anglican position? [p. 281]
- After the Breaking of the Bread, "a period of silence is kept." Are we uncomfortable with periods of silence? [p. 283]
- Is the Prayer of Humble Access (BCP p. 337] as overly penitential as it may first appear? [p. 285]
- What is your preferred practice after receiving communion? Private prayer? Joining in the hymn? [p.290]
- The Post-Communion Prayers have two elements. What are they? [p. 291]
- "The Church makes the claim that the piece of bread being put into your hand...is in some important way the body of Christ." In what way? [p. 309; p. 312]
- See the discussion on p. 315 regarding giving communion to the unbaptized. What's your position on this topic?
- See the discussion on p. 317 about assessing the spiritual health of our local church. Wouldn't this be a great outline for an Annual Report?
